5) Wall calendars are not allowed under the contingent rules and purchases made by other offices are covered by special Government Sanction This office had also pointed out once to the Board in the audit note for January 1942 that Government sanction was necessary for the purchase, but they are being purchased year after year without obtaining Government sanction

6) The purchases made so far all these years do not seem to have been got sanctioned, as no authority for the purchases has ever been quoted on the vouchers There is neither limit of sanction to the amount nor to the number to be purchased.

Audit objection for the purchase of two Lawyers Diaries and two Engagement pads

Sir,

With reference to your letter no A2 C 172/45-46, dated 29-12-45 on the above subject, I am directed to state that it is seen that the Board was purchasing only Lawyers' Diaries and that too, in the year 1942 and two during the subsequent years; but during the year 1945, two pocket diaries were also purchased in addition. The purchase made so far is not covered by sanction, either in respect of the number to be purchased or the amount to be spent each year in this behalf.

It is also reported that wall calendars are being purchased by the Board year after year, without obtaining Govt sanction, as such purchases are not allowed under the Contingent rules, as pointed out by the

Comptroller in the Audit Note for January, 1942 it is clear that the purchases made so far all these years have not been sanctioned by Govt as no authority for the purchases has ever been quoted on the vouchers

I am to request you to ~~kindly~~ intimate what the cost of the diaries etc purchased during each of the three years has amounted to and why no previous sanction was sought for these purchases although this was pointed out in the Audit note for January 1942 It is not clear why although this was no action was taken therein for nearly 4 years from
